

POSITION: REFRIGERATION AND AIRCON MECHANICBASIC FUNCTION OF POSITION

As a Refrigeration and Air Conditioning Mechanic, performs work involved in the installation, maintenance, and repair of electric powered refrigeration and air conditioning equipment and related machines in the Government owned/leased buildings.

MAJOR DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Performs full journeyman level in the maintenance and repairs of refrigeration and air conditioning equipment, related machines and electrical appliances at various locations of the U.S. Government owned and leased office buildings and residences, to include freezers, coolers, chillers, air handlers, dehumidifiers, water coolers. Advises the shop foreman of necessary replacement parts. Periodic checks and tests are conducted on all air conditioning and related equipment, and makes necessary repairs and corrective action to ensure that all air conditioning equipment is in good running order.
- Receives assignments, orally from Team Leader and Maintenance Supervisor. Performs emergency and stand-by duties as required. May drive light trucks to transport personnel, tools, equipment and materials to and from job sites.
- Other duties as requested by Facility Supervisor, Maintenance Supervisor, Engineer and Team Leader.